

Goal C: Empower women

Despite the high education achievement in Jordan, women's participation in the work force remains modest at 14%. The public sector is the preferred place for women to find employment opportunities due mainly to its flexibility. We want to empower the home makers and working women and give them incentives to participate in Amman's workforce.

Action 3.C.1
Promote work from home program

We will initiate various programs including culinary program to celebrate women who cook from home, by giving them incentives to acquire licenses and set up businesses from their home.
